

Introducing Montessori Approach to Dementia Care

Lori Horstman

*Vice President of Cognitive Care
Buckeye Home Health Care*

Lori Horstman received her Bachelor's in Social Psychology, as well as her Masters' in Education, Work and Family Studies from Miami University. Lori is also a Certified College Instructor at Miami University. Through the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners (NCCDP), she holds the following certifications: Certified Dementia Practitioner, Certified Alzheimer's Disease & Dementia Care Trainer, and Certified First Responder Dementia Trainer.

Lori has twenty years of experience as a trainer/speaker, five years of experience in Assisted Living, seven years of experience in Dementia Care, and personal experience as a Dementia caregiver. In addition, she works with Sinclair Community College as their Subject Matter Expert (SME) in Dementia.